

THE 1951

St. Joseph, Patron of the Academy

Help Us, St. Joseph

O good St. Joseph, in your name... We ask for grace and light... To live a better life each day... By doing what is right... Inspire us to holiness... And virtue unashamed... Instill in us the zeal with which... Your spirit is inflamed... Watch over us in happiness... And when our hopes are dim... Protect us from all harm and hurt... As you protected Him... O good and kind St. Joseph, be... Our foster-father, too... And let us bring our problems and... Our troubled hearts to you... Teach us to work for Jesus Christ... With every deed and breath... Help us to live a holy life... And die a happy death.

"O dear St. Joseph,
who hast guided us aright,
Four happy years----
O keep us ever in thy sight!"

"FOR GOD AND COUNTRY"

Foreword

Four swiftly passing years have brought the Class of 1951 to the great crossroads--Graduation. Each year marked a milestone on a road filled with classes, retreats, social activities and many many friends. Travelling on the theme, "For God and Country" we passed our final, our Senior Year.

Now, stepping from the well-paved road of high school onto the various paths of life, the volume of knowledge and practical experience gained at the Academy will accompany us.

The 1951 Annual is presented with the hope that web of memories woven through the years will tie Mt. St. Joseph's in our hearts forever.

EDITOR'S NOTE

A book of Memories--that's what the Yearbook might be called. Between its covers, THE MOUNT has tried to capture the big moments, the dear friends, the spirit of this, the Class of 1951.

Of course each classmate has his or her own memory book etched in the heart, with the little jokes, proudest moment and most embarrassing moment, the joys and fears of the day, and many many incidents impossible for typewriter, glue and scissors to capture.

The co-operation of a splendid staff and the capable guidance of Sister Mary Barbara, have blended together to make possible this Annual. If, in the years to come, you can look back and get some moments of happiness from its pictures and events, our goal will have been attained.

Nance Lefrancois, Editor-in-Chief.

"The Mount" Business Board

BUSINESS MANAGER'S NOTE

The Business Board of the 1951 MOUNT having successfully completed one of the biggest drives for the support of the Annual, wishes to express gratitude, in the name of the Faculty and the individual members of the board, to the Business Men and Women of the city and surrounding area for the generosity and splendid co-operation they have manifested. This spirit has made it possible for us to finance the book.

We ask you, MOUNT readers and members of the student body, to remember this support given us and to patronize the places of business advertised in the yearbook.

Ernest J. Tesconi, Business Manager.

Dedication

The Class of '51 dedicates this 12th edition of the MOUNT to the Mothers and Fathers Club of Mount St. Joseph Academy. This Club represents our parents who have made possible our Catholic Education, and promoted the welfare of the student body.

From our toddling days, our mothers and fathers have guided, taught and provided for our multiple needs. On the organized basis of the Club they are still working for our benefit and supervising our social life.

We appreciate your loving interest, Mothers and Fathers, and to you we render our heartfelt thanks.

Bishop of Burlington, Vermont

Our Bishop

Although the Academy does not see too much of Bishop Ryan since he is so intensely occupied with his episcopal responsibilities, his powerful influence is manifest at M. S. J.

A splendid speaker, powerful thinker, and zealous apostle of Christ, the Bishop exerts his jurisdiction over the diocese with remarkable facility.

MONSIGNOR WILLIAM A. CROWLEY
Diocesan School Superintendent

Our Superintendent

This school year marked the elevation of our School Superintendent to the Monsignori. "The diocese of Burlington is honored by your elevation to this dignity," said His Excellency, Bishop Ryan to Monsignor Crowley at the Investiture, Sunday, November 12, 1950, in St. Peter's Church, Rutland.

The Bishop congratulated our Superintendent on the zeal he has evinced during the years he has served the Vermont cause of Education. His excellency also stressed the valuable contribution the Monsignor has made not only to his own state, but through his writings and lectures, to the nation.

Our Rutland Pastors

If you have ever stealthily crept into early Mass each morning, if you have hidden behind the garage door during a morning's space, if you peered into the shadows surrounding the confessional box, if you peeked into the parlor where long hours were passed in generously giving encouragement, advice, and sympathy, if all your spying could be summed up on the word, "unselfishness," you would not have to search far for the persons possessing such selflessness in God's service--we present the Rutland Pastors.

TO THE FACULTY:

To the Faculty, who have followed us patiently through our four years at the Mount; to the Teachers who have made this Catholic Education possible, we now attempt to express our gratitude. But words can never begin to tell what your zealous training has accomplished.

To prepare us for our long climb on the ladder of LIFE with a good sound rung of knowledge has been the constant aim of your untiring efforts.

Throughout our lives, the results of your labors, in the guise of success, accomplishments, happiness and strength of character, will ever remind us of the debt of thanks we owe you.

President's Address

Message To The Graduates

God Bless you and yours
on this graduation day
God bless you every day--
the carefree days of youth, the faithful days of mature service,
the long days of declining years.
But God Bless you most on the day of your eternal commencement when the purpose of this life will have been achieved and heaven, yours.

Father John A. Lynch

Within a few days we shall have reached that goal towards which we have been striving for four long, yet seemingly short years. We must now enter upon the greater field of life which lies stretched before us; we must renounce our high school privileges and pleasures only to hold them with the firm grasp of our memories and assume those greater burdens which beset us as we go out, as Apostles, to change the world. Our equipment is good, our armor strong, so let us meet our worldly foes with Christian prudence and fortitude.

It behooves us to step cautiously as we cross the threshold and emerge upon the dazzling sunlight and whirl of the busy world. Think not that all is sunshine nor that fame will wait upon our bidding. Remember that "Success lies within ourselves."

We have been educated by the delegates of Christ from whom words of encouragement and advice have always been available in solving our problems. Only now we begin to realize the privilege that has been ours as the result of many sacrifices and the sincere friendship we have formed with our Priests, Sisters, Lay teachers and Athletic Coaches. Our Catholic education through them has become a priceless heritage.

In conclusion, I salute the Class of 1951 which has achieved much, and with God's help will make itself worthy in future years of Mt. St. Joseph Academy.

In September, 1950, we began our official reign as seniors with Ernest Tesconi, president of the Class; William Nugent, vice-president; Ernest Zambon, treasurer and Robert Vignoe, secretary. The Senior Cabinet was now formed--Ann Cilo, Robert Creed, Gloria Dell Veneri, Patricia Mangan, Lorraine Pelchat, Paul Perfetti, Lucy Ragosta, Barbara Stewart and Mary Westcot. With all the dignity and pomp of seniors we looked forward to the initiation of the incoming Freshmen.

Came the beautiful month of October and with it the last time our class would participate in the annual school retreat, Father Raymond, the Retreat Master, inspired us with his talks on the supernatural life.

Honors were brought to the senior class when John LeFrancois was chosen to represent the Academy as "Teen Editor" on the Extension Magazine, the National Catholic Monthly.

About this time, the Commerce Club became active and adopted a new alternating officer system: President, Charlotte Caliguire, Mary Ann Ricker. Vice President, Carmen Floresvillar, Enerica Caliguire. Chairman of Activities, Kathleen McCarthy, Dolores DeForge. Secretaries, Ann Eddy, Joan Minard. Treasurers, Ellen Grace, Aileen McCarthy.

Who could forget the patriotic demonstration for "The Crusade For Freedom?" The Band, the singing, the marching, the speeches!

The '50-'51 Football Season was a good one. Three seniors, Ernie Zambon, Bill Nugent, (co-captains) and Al Barbagallo were placed on the All-State Team.

"Look Who's Here" the Annual Minstrel Show gave Paul Perfetti as Interlocutor, All Barbagallo, Anthony Cotrupi and Bob Canney as Endmen the chance to entertain to their heart's contentment, while many Seniors rendered solos and sang in the chorus.

And now the Christmas holidays loomed in sight! The Seniors helped bring the Christmas Spirit to others in the city of Rutland by filling baskets with food; also by presenting at the last Assembly Program of the year, 1950, a Christmas program depicting the Scenes of Christ's birth and the coming of the Kings.

January brought Midyear Exams and the usual fears which precede them--also the happy sighs when "it's all over!" Work on the Yearbook, "The Mount" speeded up. Nance Lefrancois as Editor-in-Chief and Ernest Tesconi as Business Manager really got their staffs on the job.

The Basketball season was well underway before we really realized it. We experienced great expectations, dour after-maths, exhilarating moments and finally deep satisfaction when the Team was selected for the Rotary "A" Tournament. The Green Wave went down fighting to its opponent, Springfield, 46-44, with a record of having the "Thrill" game of the tournament to its credit. Lovett and Coladonato were "All Tournament" choices.

Ah, one thing we forgot to mention--the rains, sleet, ice, snow--the extra vacation days. The Rutland city Winter Carnival with the extra day out of school--which, incidentally, we had to make up.

MARY JOSEPHINE MAZZARIELLO "Mary"

It doesn't seem possible, but the year is certainly drawing us closer to graduation days; here are the honors of the class being announced. "The Clarion" gives us the news that its co-editors, Barbara Carr and Nance Lefrancois have the highest scholastic honors. Barbara is Valedictorian; Nance is Salutatorian. Then again, Barbara is awarded the Academy prize for the best Brotherhood Essay. We're very proud of these classmates, and the other eight who make up the first ten in the Class. They are--Ernest Tesconi, Patricia Martel, Mary Mulqueen, Patrick Levins, Wilma DelBianco, Paul Perfetti, Mary Westcot, and Thomas Lovett.

Dramatics and Conventions took the spotlight in March, as Dolores DeForge and Mary Mulqueen took part in the State Catholic Play Contest held in Burlington; Sam Rizziere and James Slattery travelled to Cleveland, Ohio to participate in the National Catholic Chorus, and Nance Lefrancois and Barbara Carr were delegates to the Scholastic Press Association, Columbia University, New York City.

The Senior Class Play "Double Doors" with Barbara Stewart in the leading role was presented April 12 and 13.

MARIE LILLIAN QUESNEL "Lil"
 "Success has been attained through ability plus diligence."
 Home Room Activities, Glee Club, Commerce Club, Tarcisian Club, Cecilian Club, Driver Training, May Breakfast, Student Council, Graduation Concert.

Ah, Spring" Candidates report for baseball. Spring fever takes its toll as the seniors find it hard to concentrate on their school work--birds are singing; trees are budding out. School days are waning. The Class of '51 is well represented at the Junior Prom. Last year our Lorraine Pelchat and Paul Perfetti were crowned queen and king, respectively.

May, the month of our Blessed Mother, brings the annual May Procession which is so dear to every Mountie. Mary Carol Westcot crowns Our Lady, University Exams prove to be an important incidental.

And now, Senior week has come with all its excitement and spiritual benefits and lastly--graduation on June 8. (Historians--Mary Mulqueen, Thomas Lovett).

ERNEST PAUL ZAMBON "Ernie"
 "He who has great power should use it lightly."

The Class of 1951

The Senior Class of Mount Saint Joseph in the city and county of Rutland and State of Vermont being of sound mind and memory do make, publish, and declare this our last Will and Testament, hereby making void and revoking all former Wills by us at any time here-to-fore made in manner following, this is to say:

Knowing that we are about to leave M.S.J. and feeling that our school days could have been better we wish to acknowledge our thanks to the entire Faculty for all they have done, and to accept our apologies for the thoughtlessness and heedlessness which we have known.

EDDIE LLOYD wills his report card to the faculty. They may never see another one like it.

JOE O'ROURKE leaves before Father Lynch can change his mind.

ERNIE TESCONI wills his position at the Paramount to somebody who likes movies.

JOE TILDEN gives a box of "Pep" to the monitors in order to keep them wide awake at their posts.

JACK HURLEY wills his English book to the Chinese. He hopes that they can get more out of it than he did.

JOE HEALY leaves for Korea to settle the War problem. Says Joe, "Who can get an 'A' in history when they change the map every morning.

JIM SLATTERY wills a box of bird seed to Bunny O'Rourke. Jim thinks that by next year Bunny will be able to warble with Mario Lanza.

GLORIA DELL VENERI and ROSALIE FARINO leave still wondering where their carrots are in their class rings.

JOE VALIQUETTE donates a pair of shoes to the Red Cross to be used in case of flood. Dick Knight will supply the oars.

PETE CROWLEY leaves a pair of false teeth to the first person who dares to eat any of Barbara Carr's cookies.

POOCH LEVINS and LORRAINE PELCHAT donate a gallon of ether to Hank Coladonato to lessen the pains of taking exams.

BOBBY STEWART and JEAN WEST leave, still wondering how they ever memorized all those lines for the Senior Play.

NANCE LEFRANCOIS wills her swimming ability to the football team for use on rainy days.

MARY CAROL WESTCOT leaves a box of her homemade cookies to the U.S. She thinks that they can use some more ammunition.

JACK LEFRANCOIS wills his wavy hair to George Soulia trusting that George will appreciate the generous donation.

STANLEY JAKUBOWISKI, MARY MAZZARIELLO and CARMEN FLORESVILLAR leave their names to be used in future Spelling Bees.

Makes a Will

DAVE CREED leaves to rustle cattle.

LUCY RAGOSTA leaves her bangs to Tom Levins to be used 4th of July.

EUNICE NICHOLS leaves, trying to make an honest dime.

HOOKEY NORTON and BOB CANNEY will their seats in detention to some lucky Juniors.

TONY ALTOBELL leaves Miss Smith with this question, "Where does a match go when it goes out?"

BILL HURLEY leaves his car in reverse.

BILL CREED wills his extra report cards and his ink eradicator to Joe McDevitt.

JOYCE FREEDOM wills the school a dollar to pay for all the tardy slips she used.

PETER MINER leaves his class ring to any girl who will accept it.

MARY RETA JOYCE leaves trying to get the last word with her echo.

BERTIE COLE leaves her favorite "hims" to some church choir.

BRUCE RANNEY leaves his baritone to anyone who wants to start a small revolution.

SAMMY RIZZIERE leaves his line at Foleys.

WILMA DEL BIANCO and MARY MULQUEEN leave their scholastic ability to some aspiring juniors who want to get their pictures in the Clarion.

The football and basketball teams leave a bottle of brown dye to Mr. Casey for all the gray hairs that were added the past seasons.

JERRY VALENTE leaves, thankful that his father never learned how to drive.

ALICIA BATTLES very willingly donates her chemistry book to the Boy Scouts. It seems they are looking for fuel for fire on that next trip they're making.

TOM LOVETT wills his excess height to Bob J. Carroll, hoping that Bob will grow up.

NANCY CREED and JOAN REARDON will their fiery red hair and dispositions to no-one. They feel these items have caused enough trouble.

RAYMOND CARROLL donates his books to the Academy. He figures he'll get a new supply from Uncle Sam.

JACK LANZILLO leaves for the life of adventure.

JOAN MINARD leaves her outstanding cheering ability as co-captain of the squad to Marylynn Carroll.

To the entire Junior Class we leave the responsibility of carrying on the ideals established and maintained by the Faculty of M. S. J.

In the presence of the Class of '51 we herewith set our hand and seal this fourth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-one.

Patricia Martel, Paul Perfetti (Seal)

Prophecy Class Of 1951

Here it is June 1, 1961, and we are preparing for an airplane ride, which will take us to Mount St. Joseph Academy for the reunion of the Class of 1951. As we fasten our belts for the takeoff, we begin to wonder what all our classmates have been doing since graduation. Then, as the airliner soars into space, the glittering stars are so close we can actually make out the images in them of our classmates. Here's what they revealed to us.

The McCarthy Twins, Aileen and Kathleen, are models. They are keeping people guessing as to which twin has the TONI.

Ernie "Chugchug" Zambon, professional football star, is envying mail for nationwide fan clubs under the leadership of Barbara Carr, Elizabeth Duffy and Pat Martel.

Jean West, Alicia Battles and Nancy Creed, a top dancing trio have just returned to New York from Europe where they thrilled audiences with their spectacular routines.

Bert Patry leads his own orchestra, "The Sweet Potato Tooters"; the theme song--"I Dream of Jeannie With the Light Brown Hair."

Carnegie Hall, New York City, has just opened its doors to the largest audience of its history--to welcome Joyce Freedom, in her professional piano debut.

Jerry Valente is the crooner of the age;

hear him on the "Hit Parade."

Dolores DeForge boasts the Nobel Prize for her latest novel: "How To Take Life Easy In Ten Easy Lessons." (She almost gave it up, once.)

Pete Crowley, now national golf champ, is chief golf instructor at Vassar College. The mounting enthusiasm over the sport causes us to wonder if it is really golf or Pete that is the attraction.

Always an ear for news, Jean Bove finally made the staff of the New York Daily News. She writes the famous column "Who's Who!"

Well, here's somebody who benefited from that Monitor exercise. Here's Pat Mangan superintendent of policewomen in New York City.

Nicely settled in their hometowns of Castleton and Brandon, respectively, Emily Woodbury and Marie Lillian Quesnel keep their townships before the public by editing columns in the Rutland Herald telling all the interesting events that happen in a person's life such as: births, marriages, deaths, etc.

Carmen Floresvillar, popular always as a dancer, has the elite patrons of the Copa Cabana eating out of her hands. Richard Knight, manager of the Club advises that tables are well ordered for the next six months.

Joe Healy, "Singing Governor of Vermont" still has the idea that--social legislature means all students should be well supplied with candy and the like during the school day. He is ably seconded by his private secretary, Ellen Grace.

Gloria Dell Veneri now owns her own bakery which guarantees hospitalization with every purchase.

Betty Jean Lee, owner of several thoroughbred horses, boasts her fifth win of the Kentucky Derby; her horse was ridden by the famous jockey, Stanley Jacobowski.

At last there's no-one can resist the Pep-so-dent toothpaste advertisements; why? The firm finally signed up Mary Reta Joyce and her famous smile.

Joyce McCarvell and Joyce Moulton, still inseparable, and just taking life easy. It seems that ten years isn't too long a time to take recuperating from a strenuous senior year.

Cecilia Loyzelle now has her own radio program entitled "Cecilia Faces Life." Betty Cyr is her understudy, while Theresa Bachand is the announcer.

Nance Lefrancois, famous Conover Model, still finds time to contribute her monthly article on current fashions to "Mademoiselle."

Mary Jane Nolan is captivating the hearts of her little pupils by her dramatic story presentations. At present all are enjoying the Adventures of "The Three Little Bears."

Although very busy with a housewife's duties, Rose Lafond is still charming society with her sweetness. At the present time she is New England's candidate in the "Mrs. America's Contest."

Television's "The Jazz Beat Jamboree" stars our own Jean Hutchins; and guess what? There's Carol Sanders as a featured clarinet player--she got her start with the M. S. J. Band. And who's that other performer I see? None other, indeed, but the great comedian, Diane Orłowska.

I think that's Joe Tilden I see smiling at me. Yes, Joe has won nationwide recognition for his sportswriting. He especially enjoys his current assignment--covering the famous "All American Redheads' Basketball Team."

Edna O'Byrn, the school nurse at Brandon high school, claims Gloria Bullock, of the faculty, a chemistry teacher, is her number one patient. Gloria's scientific explorations are at the bottom of it.

Spike Jones' Orchestra is tops again. Leave it to him to get someone who can help his style. All hail! Rosalie Farino at the Piano.

Clifford Brothers, (they carry you off to a peaceful place), is turning away trade since glamour boy, Tony Cotrupi took over as chauffeur position on the motor hearse.

Betty Bride and Rita Fitzgerald, after startling the city of Washington with their antics on roller skates have started a trans-continental tour as co-captains of the roller skating derby team--the Turtle-Ites.

Hollywood has something to make a big noise about since Ann Eddy has swept the country with her acting. She's the pin-up sweetheart of the day.

Peter Miner is spending most of his college days trying to keep track of his class ring; it has a habit of finding its way on different dainty fingers.

The twins, Enerica and Charlotte Caliguire, have their own School of Physical Education in Burlington; all graduates are assured of a permanent position in any one of the Homes For the Aged in Vermont over which Mary Ricker and Mary Mazzariello have general supervision.

It takes Bill Johnson some time to get started but when he does, he does a fine job; for instance here he is in England doing portraits of the Royal Family; oh! yes, I understand that Mary Carroll and Marie Crouch got him the job. They have secretarial positions in the English Embassy.

You simply have to hand it to David Creed. He could always use a hammer and what not! This time he succeeded in building a collapsible winged airplane in which he soars from Pittsford to Rutland with the greatest of ease. He's taking a good look at the "American Profile" while he flies.

Ann Cilo has finally succeeded in composing her own version to the song, "Charlie My Boy." The Problem is what does Charlie think.

Joe Valiquette has turned "Sun Valley" into the world's skiing resort. He especially instructs prospective Pros. His latest is Barbara Stewart.

Valentine Blickarz is now the proud owner of the "Green Hornet" a combination of an early 20th century Ford and a jazzed up hot-rod, which has passed on from one brother to another until it reached Val.

Yes it's happened! June Carabeau has given up her snazzy blue coupe to become a member of the "Yellow Cab Taxi Drivers."

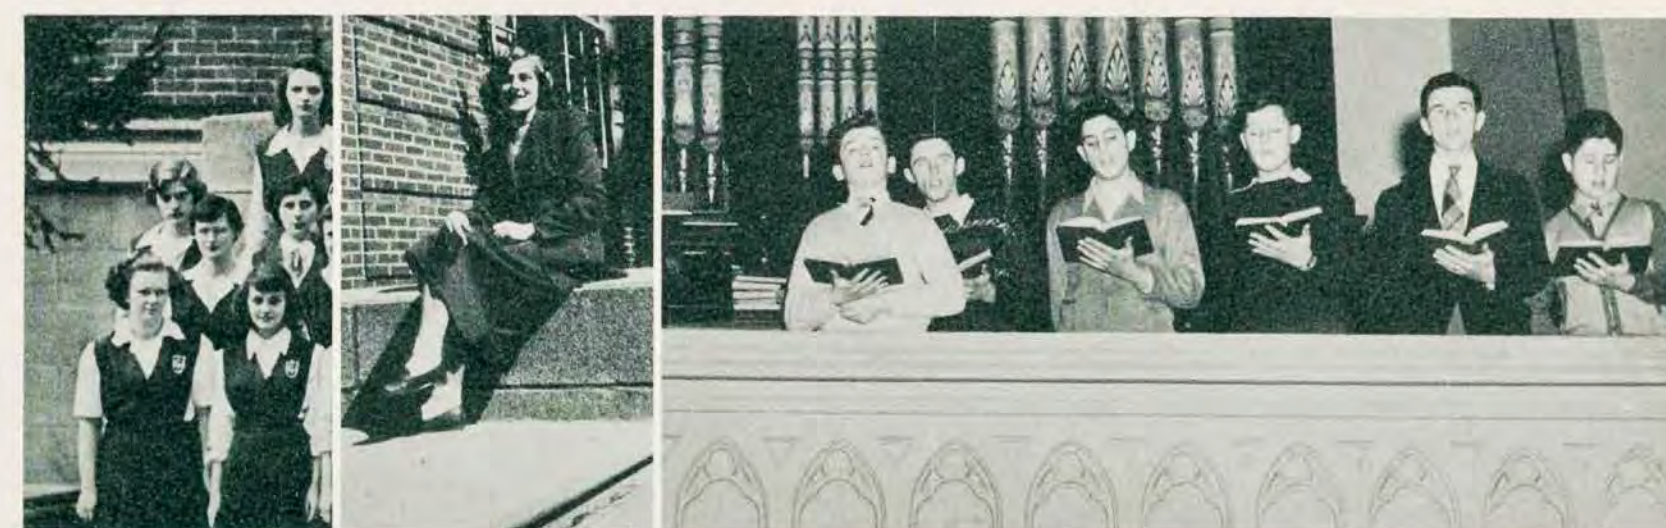

As a history teacher in the University of Alabama, Mary Mulqueen is interrupting the usual peace of the Campus by insisting that the North won the Civil War.

Marion Davison won the post as Danby Town representative to Congress; she's now filibustering on the floor on the House in Montpelier, demanding the repeal of Governor Joe Healy's law allowing children to eat candy in school.

And here's Bob Creed, who always wanted to be an architect, vainly attempting to remove excess weight from his own structure.

Ernest Tesconi, erstwhile President of this and that, has moved up the ladder in ten years--he's now boss of Radio City Music Hall with Roberta Cole as his private secretary. He drops around once in a while to see Joan Minard and Joan Reardon who are now with the Rockettes.

John Zingali, Peter Falco and Duke McGinnis are a famous singing trio now in their second year of stardom at the famous Bardwell Grill.

Arthur Murray's advertisements carry the picture of Lucy Ragosta gracefully dancing in the arms of the great Arthur himself.

The Carroll Brothers, George and Raymond are presently playing pro-basketball with the Boston Celtics.

Tony Altobell and T. V. have about hit it right. Tony is now the star salesman for Cahee's Furniture Store.

Bob Dolphin is the No. One diplomat of the country; he's now a Big League Umpire, scheduled for the next World Series.

"Sport Magazine" picked up Bill Nugent as a model soon after he finished his military training. The story is that Bill turned down the chance to star in the Movies. Nice shape, Bill.

Joe O'Rourke, Hooky Norton and Jack Lefrancois, better known as Snap, Crackle, and Pop, are confronted with weighty problems; they are local junk dealers.

Bob Vignoe is presently coaching at Holy Cross.

The Veterans Hospital in White River sends out word that no more veterans can be admitted, and the waiting list is filled for a year. Mary Carol Westcot's arrival as head nurse started a boom.

Sammy Rizziere is successfully promoting a chain of spaghetti houses--and is he tied up in his work!

It's come to pass at last! Paul Perfetti has become a "Marble tycoon"; his interest in Proctor deepened with the years.

Janet Hagan is the first woman to appear on the Bentley Accounting School faculty. But then, she always had a leaning towards this profession.

"Zonk" Lanzillo has been named as a guard on the "All County Football Team."

Bill Hurley has gained national renown at the Indianapolis Speedway where he gasses up the racing cars.

Bob Shoro is a special agent with the F. B. I.

Zoology is rather uncommon to most students, but Eunice Nichols and Alice St. - George have enrolled some thousand students in the course since they started teaching the subject at U. V. M.

Al Barbagallo, the baseball wizard, has just signed up with the Albany Over shoe League; Al is sure to get them buckling.

Bob Canney, No. 1 comedian of the Nation is soon to report in Hollywood to play opposite Toto Vitagliano in "The Return of the Thin Man."

Tommy Lovett has applied for a position as Basketball coach at Smith College. With Tom's technique the girls are sure to win.

Jack Hurley and Eddie Lloyd are the boys who have made international headlines recently; just imagine those two mining coal in Alaska.

Now that all our classmates are accounted for we are preparing to fasten our safety belts for the landing which will take us to the Mount where we will join in the Reunion of the Class of 1951.

May Day Ceremony

"O Mary we crown thee with blossoms today" rings out from the Academy Chapel and fills the air as the traditional May 1st procession in honor of Mary, Queen of the May takes place.

The procession circles its way around the Academy grounds singing the traditional hymns of Maytime; it winds its way back to the chapel where, following the presentation of flowers by the home-rooms, the crowning takes place.

This year, by popular vote of the senior class, Mary Carol Wescot will crown the statue of Our Lady as Queen of the May.

BETWEEN SCENES DURING REHEARSALS

STORY OF THE PLAY

Victoria Van Bret rules her family with a maniac's firmness. Her sister, Caroline is helpless before her. Her half-brother Rip cannot stand up against her. In a dark room that has not been changed since her father died, Victoria goes through her cheerless routine with cruel regularity. She is more cruel than ever now, just because Rip is marrying a young lady who is not of his social station, and Victoria senses a threat to the integrity of the Van Bret fortune. How Victoria tortures the bride with studied austerity, and finally tries to murder her is the malevolent burden of the play.

S E C FOOTBALL I O N

"All that glitters is not gold". The truth of this proverb was emphasized by the 1950 edition of the M.S.J. football team. This eleven was on the spot as it was the defending state champions. Coach Casey had a major rebuilding job on his hands but he had a good supply of reserve material to work with.

The Green Wave opened the campaign by whipping Granville, 26 to 0. The Mountie forward wall stood out on defense holding the Empire State crew to twenty-one yards gained on the ground. Offensively Ernie Zambon, Hank Coladonato, and Pat Levins were stand-outs.

M.S.J. played a game of fumbles with Bellows Falls September 30. However, the Mounties had enough to trim the Falls forces 21 to 0. Ernie Zambon, recovered from an earlier injury led the offensive show.

A favored Green Wave invaded Barre on October 7 in quest of win number three. The Mounties failed to come through and lost 19 to 13.

A game M.S.J. squad came from behind to beat Bennington 18 to 14. Ben-Hi held a one-touchdown lead until the final stanza when the Big Green scored twice. Zonk Lanzillo recovered a Bennington fumble to set up the winning score.

The Acads were rolling in high gear as they returned to St. Peter's Field to play host to Springfield. Mount St. Joseph showed off their forward wall as they shoved the Cosmos all over the gridiron and won 27 to 14.

Hapless Cathedral of Burlington was victim number five of the Mount to the tune of 34 to 9. The Acad line had a field day as the Northerners were continually stopped on the ground.

The game of the year was played at Brattleboro. An underdog Green Wave outplayed the Brattleboro gang for three quarters. In the final period the Colonel quarterback, Pete Faradoni directed the downstater's attack to the Green eleven yard line where Ted Rhodes scored. When the whistle sounded the Mounties were on the short end of a 7 to 0 score.

The Red Raiders of Rutland hit through the air in the third quarter and upset a favored Mount Saint Joseph team 6 to 0. The Mounties were not able to reach the Raider goal line and Rutland had won back the city championship.

The Mounties, co-captained by Ernie Zambon and Bill Nugent, finished the year with an overall record of five wins against three setbacks. Zambon, Nugent and Al Barbagallo were selected for All-State honors. Zambon was also selected for a berth on the All American Catholic prep football team.

Basketball 1950

M. S. J. opened the season in high gear by whipping a powerful Cathedral High School of Burlington 42 to 24. After scoring eight points in the first quarter big Hank Coladonato had to leave the game due to a sprained ankle, then Co-Captain Tom Lovett and soph. Frank Bizzarro took over the scoring department.

Mount Saint Joseph had to go all out to win a return engagement with the Cathedral in Burlington. The size of the court and their first look at glass backboards definitely bothered the Acads but the charges of Ed Casey had enough to hold on and escape with a close 38 to 36 verdict in favor of the Southerners.

The Green Wave tasted defeat for the first time when a surprisingly strong Bellows Free Academy of St. Albans ran away from the Wave 46 to 39.

Mount St. Joseph re-entered the winning column with an explosion by whipping the Alumni 36 to 19. Every man on the Mountie bench got a workout as the Grads offered little opposition.

Curtis High School of Staten Island, invaded Vermont and left with the Wave scalp under its belt. Curtis took the sluggish game 31 to 28. The lead exchanged hands throughout the contest but Curtis held on and won. Thus the Acads moved into the Southern Vermont League with a record of three wins against two setbacks.

Stop number one in the league was at Brattleboro where the Mounties were guests of St. Michael's of Brattleboro. M. S. J. was anything but gracious and clubbed the Mike-men 49 to 21. Hank Coladonato paced the Academy attack while Lovett and Levins lent helping hands.

Mount St. Joseph returned to the Rutland Armory and were hosts to West Rutland. In an airtight contest featuring a top brand of basketball and short tempers the Westsiders won out 43 to 42.

A rebounding Bennington team caught the Mounties on the chin and won going away 47 to 42. The Mounties gave Ben-Hi a nip and tuck battle in the first three periods but fell off in the final quarter.

Mount St. Joseph moved on to Springfield and returned to Rutland with their third consecutive defeat. A warmed up Springfield team was never in trouble as the Mounties did not show much fight.

An underdog M. S. J. had a holiday against league-leading Brattleboro and won a 64 to 46 route. Long Tom Lovett put on a one man show as he found the range for 29 tallies. Pat Levins left the lineup because of a sprained ankle.

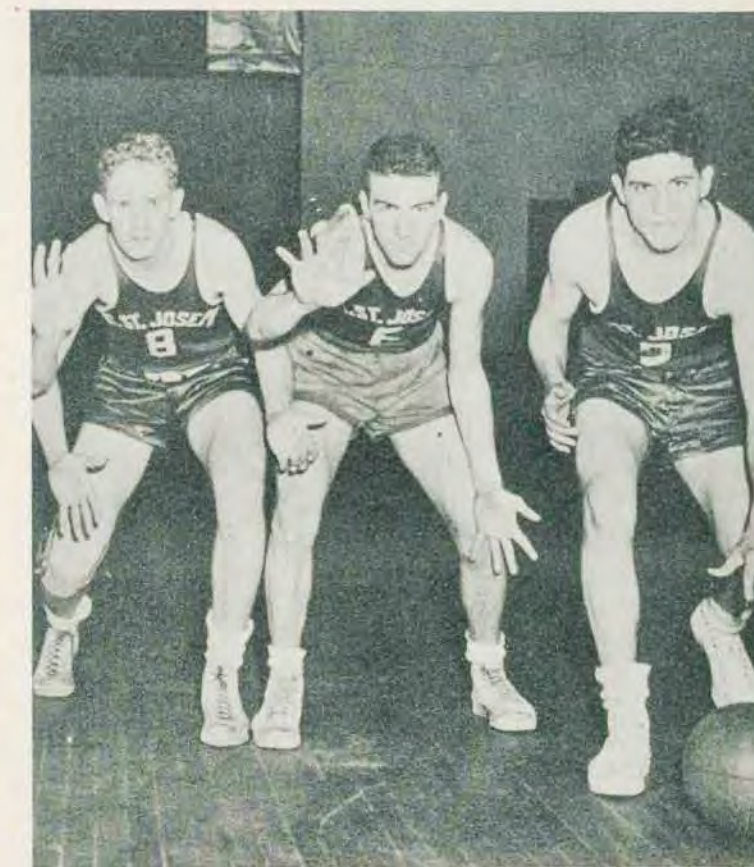

Rutland High School were the victims of an improved Academy and were unable to show the class that the Redmen were supposed to have. The Mounties led throughout, and were winners by a 41 to 30 score.

The Saints suffered a letdown against Bellows Falls and won a dull game 41 to 31. Mentor Casey let every man see action as the slumped Acads were still too much for the Falls forces.

It was West Rutland again and this time West Side played over the Mountie heads to win 41 to 34. Mount St. Joseph led early in the first period but were unable to maintain such a fast pace. When the sad fate was over Frank Hinchey's lads had done it again.

M. S. J. returned to form and played hosts to the new league-leaders Bennington. Mount St. Joseph held the lead for three stanzas but the Cats came from behind to squeeze out a 46 to 45 victory.

The Acads regained their winning form at the expense of Springfield's Cosmos. Pat Levin returned to the line-up but Tom Lovett was out with the flu. The Acads walked over the Birskeymen 55 to 36.

M. S. J. had an easy time with a slumped Brattleboro team. The Bratts were unable to match the mighty Mounties and never were able to take the lead; M. S. J. wrapped it up 48 to 31.

Rutland High School surprised the Saints and walked over the Acads 35 to 28. The big Green was unable to solve the Raider defense and were popping from the outside all evening.

M. S. J. took a free scoring 64 to 52 decision from Bellows Falls. Mount St. Joseph's led throughout as Coladonato scored 24 points to pace the Mounties.

The Acads closed the year by routing St. Michael's of Brattleboro 59 to 32. In an unimpressive contest Coach Casey gave his lads a good fast workout. Every one got in on the scoring show as the Saints closed the regular campaign.

The Undefeated J. V.'S

Coach Rounds and his boys.

Captained by Bob Carroll, the unbeaten squad consisted of Carroll, Joe Bizarro, Ron Richards, Jack Eaton, Joe Muscatello, Red Burke, John Blaise, Dick Manley, Bob Gillam, Tom Carrigan, Mike Decker, Harold Burke, Joe Levins, John Scott, Paul Gallo, Charles (Chick) O'Rourke and Larry Stewart. Managers: Tony Zingale, Denny Medlin.

In an almost direct contrast to the Varsity record, the Mount St. Joseph Junior Varsity completed an undefeated season. Under the direction of Coach Rounds, the Acad youngsters rolled through an 18 game schedule with glory.

The "Little Acads" opened the campaign by defeating the highly touted Rutland Bears of the City Recreation League and the State Championship Holy Name team of St. Peter's.

No one in the Southern Vermont League was able to match the brand of ball displayed by the J. V. 'S. Only Rutland high school's Red Raiders could come within striking distance, but were still four and six tallies respectively behind when the final horn sounded.

The "Little Acads" moved into the S. V. L. by beating St. Michael's of Brattleboro 37 to 29. They had to hang on the ropes in the third period but came back strong to take Frank Hinchey's West Rutland crew 34-28. Bennington was next in line and fell by the wayside 36-27. The Roundsmen toyed with Springfield and had little trouble in taking a 48-15 rout. They kept on rolling by making Brattleboro their next victim 38-15. After building a big lead, they had to hang on to take home a 32-28 decision against Rutland. M. S. J. was hot and cold as they trimmed Bellows Falls 48-34.

The "Little Green" kept up the red-hot pace in the second half of the 1951 campaign by polishing off West Rutland 37 to 19 in a return engagement. A desperate Bennington squad gave the Rounds' gang a race but lost out 37-31. It was 43 to 33 against the Cosmos of Springfield with Brattleboro falling 32 to 23 before the Acads. Once again the "Wave" had to depend upon an early lead to keep them in front of the troublesome Red Raiders of Rutland, but they did it--30-24. The closing game saw them out-running Bellows Falls 52 to 47.
